

PROGRAMME

The Digitisation of Higher Education: New Information Flows, Power Asymmetries and Implications for Surveillance and Privacy

Policy, practitioner and academic workshop organised by the Escalate project in conjunction with CRISP

Stirling Highland Hotel, Stirling, Scotland: Wednesday 6th October 2021

- 09.20-09.50: Arrival and Coffee
- 09.50-10.00: Welcome and Introductions
- 10.00-10.30: Some Unintended Consequences of Greater E-Learning: The Digital Escalate Project, Professor Ron McQuaid, University of Stirling, and Dr Aleksandra Webb, University of the West of Scotland
- 10.00-10.30: Navigating the Digital University. Results from a Student/Staff Survey, Professor William Webster and Jacinto Fekayamala, University of Stirling
- 11.00-11.30: Returning the Data Gaze: Data Activism in Higher Education and Beyond, Dr Terrie-Lynn Thompson, University of Stirling
- 11.30-12.00: Digital Rentiership in Higher Education: The Future of Personal Data Governance, Dr Janja Komljenovic, Lancaster University
- 12.00-13.00: Lunch
- 13.00-13.30: Teaching During the Pandemic: A Privacy Perspective, Dr Rossana Ducato, University of Aberdeen
- 13.30-14.00: Telling Surveillance Stories in the Digital University, Dr Jen Ross, University of Edinburgh; Dr Anna Wilson, University of Stirling
- 14.00-14.45: Keynote Presentation: The Cloud Campus: Imagining and Investing in the Digital Future of Higher Education, Dr Ben Williamson, University of Edinburgh
- 14.45-15.15: Coffee Break
- 15.15-16.15: Panel Discussion on the Consequences of Digitization in Higher Education. Featuring: Dr Ben Williamson, University of Edinburgh; Professor Kirstie Ball, University of St Andrews; Dr Peter Flett, University of Stirling; and Daren Fitzhenry, Scottish Information Commissioner.
- 16.15-16.30 Closing comments.
- 16.30 Close.

This event is part funded by the EU ERASMUS+ KA2 programme (project no. 2019-1-RO01-KA203- 063214), <https://escalate.projects.uvt.ro/>